2001 Workshop on GAME–T in Thailand

Royal Paradize Hotel, Phuket, Thailand

5th–7th March, 2001

Organized by

National sub–Committee for GAME–Tropics in Thailand and

Japan sub–Committee for GAME–Tropics

Sponsored by

Ministry of Education, Science, Sports and Culture (Monbu-Sho), Japan, and

National Research Council of Thailand

Objectives

This Workshop aims to summarize GEWEX Asian Monsoon Experiment (GAME) – Tropics (GAME-T) 1st Phase (1996–2001) through discussion on the fruitful results of GAME-T 1st Phase. In addition, future plans will be discussed for the international collaborative studies on the energy and water cycles over Southeast Asia in the next phase.

The first part of this Workshop will be arranged for a series of summarizing lectures of GAME-T 1st Phase. The second part will be arranged for general presentations related to GAME/GAME-T. The third part will be held jointly with the 1st International GAME-AAN(Asian Automatic weather station Network)/Radiation Workshop.

Many participants in Thailand, Japan and other countries, interested in research related to the above topics, are expected to contribute to the Workshop.
